The neural processes underlying that which we call creativity have nothing to do with rationality. That is to say, if we look at how the brain generates creativity, we will see that it is not a rational process at all; creativity is not born out of reasoning.

THINK ABOUT YOUR REALITY

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=I-w1YoFFAEA>

ACTIVITY

1. Group 3 or 4 persons
2. Choose a goal and think about a project you can implement anywhere in the world.
3. Discuss in group this,
3. Think about how YOU can implement the project to help to change that reality.
